

DC Department of Parks & Recreation - Summer 2004 Employment Opportunities

Join in the fun! Become part of the DC Department of Parks & Recreation's summer camp team. Apply today for one of the many exciting and fulfilling positions in our summer camps and aquatics facilities.

Working at a DPR camp or aquatic facility is fun and rewarding. Our campers are children ranging from ages 3-17 from various backgrounds residing in the DC Metropolitan area. We are seeking highly motivated and energetic people to spend four two-week sessions at a recreational or aquatic facility. Employment includes 8 weeks of camp and one week of paid training. It is mandatory that you attend the entire training session. We offer a vast array of activities from reading time to environmental field trips; arts and crafts and cultural expression. If you are looking to build your resume, enhance your leadership experience, team building opportunities, meet new and interesting people, but above all positively impact the lives of our youth – WE HAVE THE JOB FOR YOU!

Please take your time to review the job descriptions and position requirements. Upon review please complete the preliminary application and submit to the address below. Interviews are scheduled to begin the middle of November 2003 and will continue until all positions are filled. We recommend that you apply early. Please note, only completed applications will be accepted. Please ensure that you complete every section and attach all applicable documentation.
